

FROM RICHARDSON TO ASIA

THURS, APRIL 13, 2023
5:10 PM | ROOM 254

Learn how two Richardson alumni embarked on their legal journeys overseas in Asia and their individual experiences

Ai-Jo Wu

Proskauer Rose, LLP
 Associate

Ai-Jo Wu is a corporate finance lawyer, handling a wide range of cross-border transactions with the ability to run matters independently. With her varied experiences and education across Asia and the U.S., Ai-Jo builds a uniquely tailored practice catering to a diverse clientele. Ai-Jo advises tech and high-growth companies on incorporation and formation, seed, strategic, and venture capital financings, corporate governance, and mergers and acquisitions.

Chie Hashimoto is a licensed attorney admitted in New York and Senior Legal Manager at Richemont Japan Limited, which owns luxury brands including Cartier, Maison Van Cleef & Arpels, Chloé, Alfred Dunhill, and Montblanc. As part of a luxury conglomerate with multiple well-known luxury brands, Chie is responsible for promoting synergies among brands and providing standardized legal services. Chie also previously worked for Dell Technologies and Kering, which owns Gucci, Balenciaga, Bottega Veneta, and Yves Saint Laurent.

Chie Hashimoto
 Richemont Japan Ltd.
 Sr. Legal Manager