

April 24th, 2023, 12PM - 1:30PM in CR3

DISTRIBUTION OF POWERS IN THE CORPORATION

The United States and Japan

Professor Masumi Ito of Hokusei Gakuen University joins us to discuss the differences between Japanese and American corporate law, why these differences have arisen, and whether Japan can adopt a corporate structure similar to that of the United States.

Lunch provided. RSVP here.

Moderated by Professor Justin Levinson

Masumi Ito is a visiting scholar of the William S. Richardson School of Law and an associate professor of Hokusei Gakuen University in Japan. She received her master's degree from Hokkaido University. She engages in research in the area of corporate law and has published several studies in this field.

Sponsored by

Pacific-Asian Legal Studies

William S. Richardson School of Law | University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

The Culture and Jury Project

