UNIVERSITY of HAWAII at MĀNOA

WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON
SCHOOL OF LAW

Prof. Jiaying Jiang (LLB, Shenzhen University School of Law; LLM, University of Southern California, Gould School of Law; SJD, Emory University School of Law) is an Assistant Professor of Law at the University of Florida Levin College of Law and a former Hauser Global Fellow at New York University School of Law. She focuses her research on policies and regulations on emerging technologies, including artificial intelligence, FinTech, blockchain technology, cryptocurrencies, and central bank digital currencies.

MODERATED BY:

Ms. Chloe Berridge is a 2L at William S. Richardson School of Law with an interest in criminal law, as well as FinTech. She is from Pennsylvania and graduated from Suffolk University in Boston in 2020. Her interest in FinTech stems from blockchain technology and its potential applications to the practice of law and everyday life, as well as the regulatory treatments surrounding it. Her SYS paper addresses whether crypto exchanges can be considered financial intermediaries such that their transactions qualify for safe harbor protections under the Bankruptcy Code.

The IAPBL Spring 2023 Zoom Lecture Series is being organized by IAPBL Director Prof. Charles D. Booth and Deputy Director Prof. Garrett I. Halydier.
